14. Continued:

- A. The following Government answers to question are provided for the information of prospective offerors in preparing their technical proposals:

Question #1: Can you provide any information in regards to the liquid nitrogen that will be supplied to the solicited equipment? Will there be a separate solicitation for the liquid nitrogen or if there will be a modification to a current supplier contract that provide for the liquid nitrogen and if so, what is the current contract end-date for that requirement?

Answer #1: NASA Dryden Flight Research Center does not directly procure our liquid nitrogen. We utilize a contract held by the Edwards Air Force Base and are not knowledgeable of any contract details such as end-date. No solicitation for liquid nitrogen is anticipated.
